Corporate Profile

Global Information, Inc.

Providing Optimal Services for Market Research Intelligence

Global Information, Inc. has over 30 years experience serving clients worldwide.

We challenge ourselves to achieve continuous growth. Our global reach enables us to deliver reliable information to our multinational clients.

Concept

For more than 30 years, we have delivered quality market intelligence in leading vertical industries.

Global Information Inc. (GII), is headquartered in Japan with overseas offices worldwide. GII partners with over 300 market research companies as well as more than 50 global conference organizers. We provide comprehensive services to clients in diversified industry sectors. Our primary mission is to provide reliable resources to support clients in decision-making processes; our ultimate goal is to assist our clients with business development strategies.

Values

GII teams work diligently to deliver quality products and valuable services to our global clients.

Market Intelligence

Utilizing our worldwide network of over 300 market research firms, our strength is in allocating the best resource to capture current global market trends and technology developments. We continuously add new sources of intelligence to ensure our clients enjoy the most updated market information.

Business Strategies

In business, we understand the importance of accurate data and analysis, as well as the role it plays in decision making processes. We provide our clients access to the most reliable analyst teams that can answer critical questions in support of their business strategies.

Customer Care

At GII, we get to know our clients so we can recommend solutions matched to their specific business needs. We listen to our clients' feedback and provide continuous customer care to assure all questions are answered precisely and efficiently.

Delivering Rapid Information Updates to Clients Worldwide.

GII offers real-time services and works with our global clients around the clock. We present our portfolio online in English, Japanese, Korean and Chinese. From market research intelligence to global industry conferences, GII serves as the single point of contact for our clients in obtaining the most up to date information in dynamic industries. We provide comprehensive, diversified and customized solutions tailored to individual client needs.

Services

Market Research Reports

Through our partner network, we affiliate with analysts and experts who serve global, regional and niche market sectors. Our off-the-shelf portfolio covers market analysis, emerging business, technology trends, industry forecasts and patent/regulation information. Our clients are confident in GII's selections which assist them with business strategies and long term planning.

Custom Research

If no published reports are available in a particular area of interest, we can coordinate custom research projects. GII's global teams function as the liaison between our clients and our network of research partners. We help clients to define research scope and deliverables and to assure that the project is completed on time and to the client's complete satisfaction.

Annual Subscription Services

For clients who require instant updates on market trends and analysis, we offer annual subscription options. Users can access data via online platform, electronic distribution or printed media. These services are appropriate for clients who require continuous information updates throughout the year on specific topics.

International Conferences / Exhibitions

Business networking and market intelligence are complimentary. To help our clients with this integration, we offer access to domestic and international conferences that align with market opportunities coinciding with their strategic goals. Through GII channels, clients are introduced to over 200 conferences and events annually.
